Dalhousie University Research Support Fund 2017 – 2018 Objectives / June 2018 Report

2017 - 2018

Research facilities	Financial support for operating costs for five designated Core facilities	Continue to develop and support Core research facilities and multi-user space	Core facilities centralize research equipment and technical support and	Core facilities are adequately supported to provide excellent resources and	Support was provided for operating costs of designated Core facilities. Application for support and annual reporting racinties	muiti-user space	are available to the research community	assistance to researchers	requirements for Core facilities are being established.